VISITING BRIGHTON

FOOD AND DRINK

It fills me with immense excitement and honor to welcome people from near and far to beautiful Brighton and to my studio, where together we embark on an enchanting journey of creating your jewellery. For those who are new to this vibrant coastal town, allow me to introduce you to some of my favorite spots where you can indulge in delightful breakfasts, coffee, lunch, dinner, and drinks. Additionally, I'll also share a couple of recommendations for other local suppliers you might wish to visit while you're here. Let's explore the gems of Brighton & Hove and make your trip even more memorable!

Food and Drinks

- T@Hove takes pride in sourcing the finest beans from around the world, ensuring that every cup of coffee is a sensory delight. Whether you prefer a velvety smooth latte, a robust espresso, or a rich and aromatic pour-over, their skilled baristas will craft your beverage with precision and care. The dedication to quality is evident in every sip, with each cup delivering a sublime and memorable experience. Beyond their exceptional coffee, T@Hove also offers a tantalizing selection of artisanal pastries, cakes, and light bites. Indulge in a flaky croissant or savor the decadence of a freshly baked cake, perfectly paired with your favorite brew. With each delectable bite, you'll find yourself transported to a world of culinary bliss.
- Riddle and Finns is renowned for superb seafood and exceptional service. Their commitment to community support and sustainability sets them apart. With top-quality dishes, warm hospitality, and a focus on local suppliers, customers enjoy a memorable experience while contributing to a better future.
- Tørstigbar emerges as Brighton's pioneering low-alcohol bar and bottleshop, meticulously curating an impressive selection of the world's finest low-alcohol beverages. With a steadfast commitment, Tørstigbar exclusively offers drinks with an ABV of 0.5% or below. Positioned front and center, the establishment showcases a diverse range of great-tasting beverages, catering to individuals in search of a clear mind, an early start, or a well-deserved night off.
